Dear Brothers and Sisters:

We are pleased to announce a special Teamster Organizing training conference: “Organizing to Build Back Stronger”, Monday, May 3 through Friday, May 7, 2021. The interactive training will take place via Zoom each day from 12 noon – 5pm EDT.

With substantial progress in combatting the coronavirus and a new worker-friendly political environment, our great Union stands ready to take advantage of this moment and organize workers on a massive scale. Now’s the time to hone our skills, ground ourselves in the fundamentals of organizing as well as prepare to use new tools.

The conference will be open to all Local Union and Joint Council organizers, your member volunteers, officers and staff. A short plenary session on a timely and important topic will be held each day in addition to the intensive classes. New this year will be an instruction track conducted wholly in Spanish.

Electronic registration will be open Wednesday, April 7th at the following link:

Make plans now to attend as we arm ourselves to take advantage of the tremendous organizing opportunities that lie ahead. Together, we will build back our Union even stronger!

In Solidarity,

Jeff Farmer
Director of Organizing
